Announcing a watercolour painting workshop

Would you like to learn the basics of watercolour painting or advance your skills? Come along to our painting workshop where artist Graeme Smit will demonstrate and take you step by step through painting your own individual landscape scene.

The steps are sky, middle ground, foreground and focal point.

The following topics will be included:

Light source and shadows

Composition

Colour mixing

Tonal values

Perspective

Avoiding typical watercolour painting difficulties

The goal of the workshop is to establish or enhance watercolour painting skills and at the same time make it a fun day, a day of enjoyable learning about the wonderful creative process of watercolour.
