DAS is excited to bring award winning artist Judy Rogers to Dunsborough for a one-day workshop that will cover the basic principles of portrait painting. This workshop has something to offer for beginner and experienced artists. Through detailed observational sketches participants will establish a good understanding of proportions, facial features, expressions and how to make the subject look three-dimensional.

Judy Rogers is an award-winning international artist based in Perth, Western Australia. Judy's works can be found in prominent international public and private collections. Judy has represented Australia at a number of prestigious international arts forums and is a highly qualified lecturer in the arts.

Judy's works include intricate mixed media works and public sculpture. She takes on a wide range of techniques from the ultra-traditional to the cutting-edge contemporary. You can find out more about Judy on her website www.judyrogersartist.com.

You will need to bring:

- A/3 papers/boards, drawing supply, charcoal sticks, kneadable eraser, masking tape, cleaning rag
- pigments/paints of your preferred medium, brushes in a range of sizes, mediums and solvents
- Easel and backing board
